To start off the new school year there was the annual "welcome back to school" assembly. Almost everyone attended and proved to be roarin' with spirit and ready for the fun to begin.

Early fall dances were a great success, especially the first one of the season. Sponsored by the Amplifier staff, it was a disco dance with music provided by Blue Light Express.

Class representatives joined in the competition games, including a sleeping bag race and a banana eating contest during pep assemblies to raise spirit.

Other activities included assemblies on Corrigan, Madrigal singers, vocal concerts, and Up With People, which Activity Director Scott Burgess felt was the "biggest event this year."

"I personally had some high expectations. They did what I had hoped for — which was usually more than they were capable of." Thus Coach Chris Baumgartner expressed his feelings about the teams.

Boys' Cross Country ran forty-five miles on an average per week during the season.

John Teters was voted most outstanding runner by his varsity teammates. John placed twentieth out of ninety-eight runners at the Wilco District meet, which placed him on the third team for the All-Wilco district team.

The outstanding J.V. runner was Dave Weeks. Dave spent part of the season on varsity since on J.V. Dave was only two points away from receiving a varsity letter.

There was a very strong team attitude this year with good leadership from seniors.

John Teters was selected as outstanding runner, most inspirational, and honorary captain; Scott Sayre was selected as athlete of the month by the Amplifier; and Jon Farley didn't miss one practice the whole season.

Girls' cross country was reborn this season after a one-year "lay-off." Although the team was inexperienced, and neither the J.V. nor the Varsity teams were complete for most of the season, the girls "performed very well individually," according to coach Chris Baumgartner.

Although there were no team records kept, the girls competed well at the district meet individually. Pam Carter placed sixth in girls J.V. and Valerie placed in the Varsity race.

They were a small band, but the girls worked hard at improving their skills, running between 20 to 25 miles a week in practice, and more on their own. Their effort paid off in individual pride.

"Good team pride is the best way to describe the freshmen cross country team's attitude, and is probably the reason for their outstanding performance as well," according to Coach Chris Baumgartner.

The runners finished their dual meet season with a ten win — two loss record and were expecting third place or better at the district meet. However, they disappointingly finished in fifth place, outrun by three teams they had previously defeated.

Outstanding runners were Lance Knight and Lance Dunning, and, in the team's opinion, the most improved runners were Joe Bernert and Ben Campbell. All the boys' team spirit and their running skill combined to produce a winning freshmen team for West Linn High.

Eight talented gymnasts coached by Pepper Trautman boasted a score of seven wins to four losses, and placed fourth in the sub-district meet.

Outstanding gymnasts included Dawn O'Connor, who placed ninth in the sub-district meet on beam and eighth in all around. Dawn also qualified for District.

Another outstanding gymnast was Karla Putman, who placed ninth on floor, bars, and all around in the sub-district meet.

An especially good meet for the team was when they won over San Barlow with a score of 97.23 to 71.86, breaking last year's team record by three points.

The team has shown progress since last year and kept up a strong pace throughout the season.

The boys' gymnastics team really put out an effort. They stayed together and worked hard all season. While scoring five wins to three losses, the team broke last year's record by 10 points.

High scorer and most valuable member was Rob Farley, who competed in all-around. Dave Morris performed well in three events. Dave Grant was chosen most inspirational by his teammates, and Reggie Purkhiser was chosen as most improved.

All the gymnasts worked toward competing in all six events — floor, pommel horse, rings, vault, parallel bars, and horizontal bars.

The boys ended a season which saw many school records broken by meeting Columbia and scoring 116.78 to 103.5

The 1977 girls' gymnast team had a lot going for it. In a super year, each girl achieved her own personal goal. "With more work," commented the coach, "all the girls could be real gymnasts on the varsity team."

One highlight of the year was an invitational Wilco League where West Linn placed third. Coach Trautman said, "We had a hard working team and everyone enjoyed what they were doing."

With team captain Shauna Netherton, the girls had a lot of inspiration, and all the gymnasts impressed other schools.

The girls' varsity volleyball team did an outstanding job. Each member of the team gave all she had and never stopped trying to do better.

The team lost seven seniors this year, including Jill Buse, most inspirational and Debbie Ware, most spikes. "I'll miss it," stated Jill, "and I'll miss the competition between schools." Other participating seniors were Sue Morgan, Brenda Powell, Jean Miken and Denise Tylman.

All the teammates contributed greatly to the team effort for the year with good results. Mrs. Lucille Grunst, varsity coach, said, "We would liked to have been in the District Play-offs, but just missed by ending up in third place with a 7-5 record."

"The J.V. volleyball team worked hard and improved greatly. They had a lot of spirit and enthusiasm," commented Coach Pat Kahle. The J.V. team ended with 4 wins and 10 losses and the third team ended with 4 wins and 4 losses. Their toughest opponent was Gresham.

There were actually two teams in the J.V. events. These are used to give the girls the experience of playing high school ball. They were a young team compared to other schools with three of our starters as freshman.

The three most experienced players were Roxanne Oetken, Carolyn Schleiss, and Cindy Sprague. The two most outstanding players were Lori Holdahl and Sheri Anderson, according to Coach Pat Kahle.

The 400 who attended our 1977 Fall Sports Awards Dessert, Tuesday, November 8 at 7:30 p.m. included football players, rally squads, Debs, cross-country runners, gymnasts, coaches, parents and friends.

This group of people separated into different areas to give out the awards which pertained to their particular sports.

Visiting the dessert were past athletic students Leanne Schwabauer and Larry Doty, who came as guest speakers. Each team worked hard to make this season more meaningful for us all. They have really done a great job representing West Linn High this fall.

Under rookie coach Tom Boyle, West Linn's varsity football team managed to turn a 1-8 ball club of last year into a respectable 4-5 team in league play.

Actually, the team was better than its 4-5 record portrayed. Early in the year, after beating the Milwaukie Mustangs 20-0, the Lions lost a couple of heartbreakers to Wilco League powerhouses Tigard and Lakeridge.

It was not until near the end of the season that the Lions came out of their slump to end the year with a three game winning streak.

The good times started with a powerful and assertive victory over Oregon City. This victory, achieved during Oregon City's Homecoming and on their field, gave West Linn the coveted Bernie Hermann trophy for the fourth consecutive year.

West Linn's next win came with a score of 20-14 over a persistent Redmond team that wouldn't give up.

The Lions finished their season with an impressive 26-6 win over Hood River. The Lion's tight defense held Hood River's Eagles to 63 yards total offense and clinched the role of First for the hungry Lions. Additional honors followed: Eight West Linn players received Wilco recognition for their efforts on the field. Dave Clark was chosen first team defense. Second team defense spots went to Bob Bishop and Brian Porter. Brothers Skip and Glen Doty were chosen for the second team offense. Lowell Geigle, Dan King, and Alan Folk received honorable mention for defense.

Team Defense in the Wilco League

West Linn's defense string was coached by Bill Smethurst and Terry Pollreis.

Good attitude and discipline played an important role in the 4 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie record of the junior varsity football team. "The players learned that there is no substitute for hard work. When we worked hard, success came relatively easy for us," stated J.V. head Coach Clark Hoss. The team worked on individualism enough to strengthen the individuals while at the same time combining teamwork with it to strengthen the playing ability of the team.

Dave Franzen, Kurt Williams, and Nick Hamel were this year's outstanding players for the offensive team, while Steve Potter and Chuck Croy were the defensive team's outstanding players.

One of the team's better games was against Oregon City when West Linn annihilated Oregon City 22-0 on the West Linn field, with Dave Franzen pulling in two touchdowns in the first half, and the Lions dominating the Pioneers for the rest of the game.

Another dynamic game for the J.V. Lions was their final game of the season, when they defeated the Columbia Chargers 20-7. This game was scoreless in the first half with West Linn pulling it off in the last four minutes of the game to hurl the Chargers to a loss.

Both the Green and Gold freshmen football teams began their seasons on a winning note: the Gold team defeated Sam Barlow, and the Green team tied Milwaukie 14-14. Coach Dick Davis seemed very pleased with the new offense that the teams used.

The worst game of the season for the Green team was against Lakeridge when the Lions were shutout 47-0. Coach Davis commented "Lakeridge was our toughest opponent of the season."

The Green team had a record of 3-3-1, whereas the Gold team had a even better record of 5-1.

Outstanding players included Mike Scheehan, Ron Stewart, Ray Force, Casey Vieceali, Stormy Floyd, Bruce Williams, Charlie Fillebrown, Scott Taplin, and Jim Rhondeau.

Football rally brought many firsts. The major "first" was the forming of a rally class. It was held during first semester, and proved to be worthwhile. The class gave the rallies some much needed time to plan and organize pep assemblies and to analyze the needs of the student body in order to gain maximum participation.

Another first came from the J.V. rally a newsletter titled J.V. Rally Speaks Out. Its purpose was to inform readers of the standing of J.V. and freshmen teams.

In addition to these new activities the rallies kept up the traditional ribbon, button and sucker sales.

"Super", "Fantastic", "Generous," is how some Varsity Football players described their Guardian Angels. Guardian Angels was a group of 40 junior and senior girls whose duties were to decorate the locker of a football player on game days to promote spirit. This rally-planned program succeeded. Some Guardian Angels even went so far as to bake their guys cookies, cakes, and myriad other goodies. At the last fall pep assembly, the Guardian Angels were revealed to the players, and to show his appreciation, each player presented his "Angel" with a rose.

Homecoming Week was a busy time at West Linn High School. The days were filled with activities like Guess the Godmother, Gangster Day, Reject Mr. Irresistible, Hat Day, and of course, Powderpuff.

With male rally squads urging them on, the seniors vanquished the juniors 14-6.

Homecoming Week culminated Friday with the Crowning of Queen Karen Stuckey and her court, the selection of Skip Doty as Joe Football, the introduction of Guardian Angels, and a victory over Hood River. Students topped off the festivities with an after game dance.

Homecoming Week was a fun time for most students, because plans were made early so the entire student body could get involved in activities.

West Linn opened its drama season with the hilarious and entertaining comedy Charley's Aunt. Rehearsals began the second week of September. The performances were staged November 10-12 and 17-19. "Thursday was one of the largest opening nights for any show," said Mr. John Welty, play director.

Tony Lintas and Jim O'Connell, double-cast for the role of Stephen Spettigue, performed on alternate nights. Veterans to the stage included Eric Johnson, Mike Delanty, Monty Shuster, Pat Logan, Matt Trueb, Sheryl Dole, and Donna Sellman. Brooke Severson and Marilyn Bushway performed for their first time. Student directors were Julie Fisher and David Eppelsheimer. Credit must also be given to the numerous students who helped backstage and with make-up, costumes, etc.

Charley's Aunt cost about $1000 to stage. The cast of 11 people worked hard, and Mr. Welty commented that a small cast "wasn't easier to work with, but we developed a close-knit family feeling."

Christmas week 1977 was filled with activity and the Christmas spirit.

While the seniors' Christmas tree in the upper hall glittered and sparkled, decorative calligraphy posters decked the halls. Students could be seen giving and receiving gaily wrapped presents in many halls and classrooms.

The Annual Christmas concert was refreshing entertainment. Many parents attended and enjoyed the concert and refreshments.

Other activities included the canned food drive. Students brought in a total of 1,484 cans. To add to the festivities various groups participated by selling candy canes, roses, carnations, and baked goods.

The evening of the last day before Christmas vacation the Christmas Ball was held to bring West Linn students' Christmas to an exciting climax.

West Linn students waited in eager anticipation for the 1977 Christmas Ball. During the weeks before the ball, students bought dresses and suits for the semi-formal annual occasion.

The Christmas Ball was held in the Flavia Hall at Marylhurst College, on Wednesday, December 21. Approximately 82 couples came to make 1977 the first year ever that a profit was made on the ball. Students danced in the very relaxing atmosphere to the sounds of 'Frankly Scarlet.' Their music ranged from fast moving rock and country songs to slow, soft, mellow sounding ones. The students with their Christmas spirit made this a special night and one which will long be remembered.

This year's varsity boys' basketball season saw the end of an impressive 4-year home-court winning streak. Before losing to Milwaukie, the Lions extended their record of uninterrupted home wins to 51. The boys finished their season with a 15-7 record, which was the third best of 15 teams in the Wilco league.

The Lions were essentially a young team and they played hard in a tough league. Making up most of the team's experience were returning starter Randy Reed, former lettermen Scott McKie and Leif Rasmussen, and senior transfer Rick Hofstetter. The team's most outstanding players were Sophomore Scott McKie and Senior Randy Reed. Scott broke school records for both individual game assists and season assists and Randy led the team in scoring and rebounding.

Some of the year's most memorable games were overtime wins against Timberline and Clackamas, beating Rex Putnam by 10 while they were ranked 6th in state, and edging by Oregon City as the buzzer sounded.

The Junior Varsity basketball team finished the 77-78 season with 14 wins against 8 losses. Jim Zauner racked up 257 points this season, for an average of 11.7 per game, to lead in that department. He also led in rebounds, collecting 56 offensive and 84 defensive over the season.

Dave Ross, who was second in scoring and rebounding, was the most improved player for the year. Jerry Johnson led in steals and was second in assists, while Steve Potter was the top assist-man for the Lions.

Coach Smith was proud of his team, pointing out that they had good speed and hustle, learned and improved over the year.

West Linn's Varsity III basketball team did an outstanding job this year. They were the only West Linn team to remain undefeated for most of the season. Their only loss was to Central Catholic on the Rams' court. They finished the season with a 17-1 record, which is the best record of any West Linn winter sports team. The team captain, Rob Freels, deserves a great deal of credit for his leadership abilities. The team had excellent overall teamwork, and had lots of experience. Kris Geldaker was named the team's most improved player. Coach Mitchell added, "All the kids had super attitudes throughout the season, and that definitely helped us to win."

"The frosh gold team never quit," said Coach Greg Toland.

They showed a great deal of character by coming up from behind in several games to win when other teams may have given up, winding with a season record of 11 wins and 10 losses.

Ron Stewart and Ray Force led the team in rebounding with Stewart and Lance Dunning as leading scorers. The best defensive players were Force, Doug Boettcher and Dunning.

The frosh green team didn't win as many games as they would have liked to but still had a worthwhile season.

"Success was measured in our improvement as the season went along, our best victory being over Wilson who had a 15-1 win/loss record," said Coach Don Schmeiser.

By committing fewer turnovers and by improving their rebounding, the 10 girls of the varsity basketball team brought their record to 15 wins — 4 losses; 10-1 in league games.

"This year's team had the

of any team in the four years we have had girls' basketball," said Coach Tom Boyle. Seven different players have scored in double figures at least once, and all of the ten girls have started at least one game.

Lynnette Holdahl was the best defensive player, who led the team in steals in which she averaged 5 per game. Debbie Ware was the most consistent player, who also led the team in scoring with a 17 point per-game average.

By having the best record in the league, the team made it to the play-offs for state, but were defeated by Gresham, 46-45, in the league championship game.

TOP LEFT: Jill Buse scores another two points despite her opponent's efforts. TOP RIGHT: Debbie Ware hustles the ball towards the basket. The Junior Varsity girls' basketball team racked up 13 wins and 9 losses, a new team record for wins. Many other school records were broken during the long season. Elaine Holland led the team in scoring by sinking shots amounting to 182 total points. Lisa Rust finished not far behind by scoring 159 points. Other high scorers for the team included Gretchen Geldaker and Penny Hackenberger. Lisa Rust also held the highest accuracy percentage for free throws. Her 67 percent stuffing ability stifled many teams.

Clark Hoss, who coached the J.V. girls again this year, had little to say about his team.

This newly formed freshman girls' basketball team got off to a slow start. But after getting the total feel of the game a winning season materialized. Two exceptional freshman girls, Lisa Taylor and Janet Holland, were placed on the junior varsity and varsity teams early in the season.

The team was handicapped by a lack of height. They overcame this small problem by being more aggressive than their opponents. By having a strong defense they handed unbeaten Clackamas their first defeat of the season. Coach Dick Davis felt that "this year's girls' freshman team has a bright future in basketball."

For the total season an 8 win 9 loss record was impressive for this first year team.

The 1977-78 Homecoming Sweetheart Week began with the Junior Olympics in which five members of each class and teachers competed in activities like "bounce the football," "flick the ping pong ball," and other "fun" things. Tuesday brought about "inside-out" day in which some students participated by wearing their clothes inside-out. Wednesday was the "Miss Irresistible" competition. The winner was senior Lori Sheldon. Baby picture day, where the student body tried to see if they could recognize their friends when they were little, came on Thursday. The climax of the week was Friday, when Homecoming Queen Bev Bruechert and her court were announced. Many Val-o-grams were written for sweethearts or just friends. The busy week ended with a successful dance sponsored by the Debs, following the basketball game Friday night.

The 1977-78 season for the Lions Varsity wrestling team was one of of rebuilding and training. With only four returning seniors, the young team struggled and performed in the tough Wilco League.

The wrestlers had an overall record of 5 wins, 15 losses, and 1 tie. One meet in which Coach Bill Smethurst thought his team put out a "fantastic effort" was against Parkrose, where they were down 28 to 9 at the beginning of the 157 lb. weight class. The Lions got it together and then pulled a win over Parkrose by winning the rest of their matches with a final score of W.L.-35, P.R.-28.

The outstanding wrestlers of the team were: Rocky Williams, with a 7-0 record at 115 lbs.; Neal Brown at 168, and Tim Ulsky at 191, both with a 17-3 record; and Arnie Bagley at heavyweight with a 15-2 record.

The four returning seniors were: Rocky Williams, Wayne Gump, Mark Krellwitz, and Larry Oldenstadt, with Head Coach Bill Smethurst saying that he was "pleased with the leadership that the four seniors on the team contributed. With so few (seniors), they had a lot of responsibility to guide the younger wrestlers."

On Feb. 10 and 11, the team competed at sub-district, with three team members placing well, and two placing high enough to go on district.

The place winners were Wayne Gump at 191 lbs., with first place, Arnie Bagley at heavyweight, with second place, and Rocky Williams taking fifth place.

Moving onto district competition, both Wayne Gump and Arnie Bagley did very well, with Arnie placing third and Wayne taking first. Wayne went on to take sixth place in state.

The season record for the Freshman Wrestlers was 8-4 and 1, with Coach Barry Bergman explaining that most losses could have been wins if the team would have been larger and forfeited fewer weight classes.

Although the young matmen were small in number and lacked experience, "They did a heck of a job" according to Coach Gene Davis. Outstanding Wins included Tigard on December 15 and Lakeridge on February 3, when the Freshmen really got the job done with scores like 48-46, and 63-18, respectively.

Some of the key winners on the team were Troy Ankersen, Rob Gump, Mark Hallquist, Bruce Williams, and Jeff Wright, who had great seasons.

The winter rallies were kept busy making posters and locker signs, planning pep assemblies, selling ribbons, and for a final project, selling Tootsie Pops to select the season's Mr. Dribble. Randy Reed. According to the girls, "Mrs. Marci Gano was a real asset in the organization of the rallies; without her enthusiasm and problem solving abilities, success might have been unattainable."

A lack of school spirit was felt by the entire student body.

The rallies made attempts to correct this attitude with creative pep assemblies such as the academy awards pep rally.

Three rally boys, better known as the "Cone men," led foot stomping and hand clapping yells.

At the Winter sports banquet, head boys' basketball Coach Ernie McKie praised the efforts of his Lion roundballers. The most Valuable Player awards went to Randy Reed and Scott McKie.

In wrestling, Wayne Gump, the 191 pound-rated 6th State wrestler in his weight class, took the spotlight.

The girls' basketball team was highly commended for their only one-point-loss to Gresham for the league championship. Coach Tom Boyle described the team as the "best in the league." Debbie Ware was voted most valuable player.

Of all the drama productions of the high schools in Oregon, West Linn's Romeo and Juliet was one of two chosen to perform at the Annual Thespian Conference, March 31. This, according to Director John Welty, was a "tremendous accomplishment in which the school and the community can take pride."

Several aspects of the play made it particularly challenging for the actors. The script, written in Elizabethan language, often had to be translated word by word before practices could begin.

Much of the success of the production depended on the authentic appearance of fencing bouts.

Costumes for Romeo and Juliet also demanded special attention.

Guys were dressed in tights, tunics, cod pieces, and full sleeves, while the ladies wore elaborate gowns to reflect the dress of the Italian Renaissance.

The woodshop, under the direction of Mr. Gary Fergus, created the set, which provided an excellent atmosphere for the drama.

"The opera ain't over 'til the fat lady sings," and oh what sweet music she made at the baseball playoffs. For when the song was done, West Linn's diamondmen, dubbed the cinderella team by coaches and sports writers all over the state, wore the new title of Oregon AAA

baseball champions.

The Lions had to fight their way to the top. After making the playoffs by beating The Dalles and Reynolds, WL took on highly-rated Grant. The numbers 3 and 2 proved to be a winning combination for the Lions; they used the same set of stats to put Grant, Medford, and Cottage Grove away; in each game the final score was 3-2.

Three plus two is five, and that proved to be the BIG number as the '78 Lions beat Tigard to become the first WL baseball team to ever take a state championship.

Outstanding players included Bob Bishop, who was voted All-Wilco League catcher, won the Ken Westover Umpires' Scholarship, was selected to play in the state All-Star game, and was named co-most valuable and co-most inspirational player by his teammates. Bishop hit 410 for the season.

Dave Morris, termed a "fireballer" and "speed pitcher," played a major role in capturing the championship. Morris was chosen for the All-Wilco League first team and was voted co-most valuable player by his peers.

Pitcher Dan King frequently used his slider and his curve ball to keep other teams from scoring throughout the season. King made Honorable mention on the All-Wilco league team and captured the co-most inspirational player award. John Tolman, Glen Doty, and Jeff Menath made honorable mention — all Wilco league team.

Rain plagued the J.V. baseball team. With a series of rained-out games, the team never really had the chance to play ball regularly. Coach Terry Woebke felt that his "enthusiastic hardworking team" had its ups and downs. Chris Morris, the only freshman on the team, showed promise. Left handed pitcher Jeff Greenlee and right hander Rod Rimby kept the other teams swinging throughout the season. Greenlee pitched a no hitter against The Dalles with the win being the most dramatic game of the season. Team member Doug Bishop summed up the season by saying, "our team did very well this year and will do better next year."

Desire, enthusiasm, and team spirit were evident in this year's freshman baseball team. The team was strong in all areas except pitching.

Ray Force led the offense for most of the season, along with Rod Craig. The main pitching load was carried by Bruce Williams.

The team had two major goals: to have a good attitude, and to get along with teammates. Indeed, these goals helped the team to win many of their games. Much of their play was done in the Willamette Park for lack of another diamond.

The '78 track season showed a lot of improvement with the help of Dave Clark and Steve Sayre in the running events and a lot of individual efforts in the field events. But because of the overall improvement of the other teams in the Willamette division, West Linn ended up with a 2-4 win-loss league record, the same as last year. The overall season records were: Varsity 3 wins-5 losses, Junior Varsity 4 wins-4 losses, and Frosh 5 wins-2 losses. West Linn lost first place by only one point in the Canby Invitational, but easily won second place. Candidates for the most improved individual were Steve Sayre, Nick Hamel, Matt Hyde, Jeff Schroeder, Dave Ryles, Jon Farley, and Tom Previs.

The top three scorers for the team were: Kim Carroll, Nancy Hubbard, and Jami Phillipson, in that order.

Sophomore Kim Carroll had a very successful season. Besides winning in dual meets, Kim placed first in the high jump, setting a new meet record at the Willamette Relays. To wrap up the season, Kim placed in district and took first place in state competition.

The girls ended their season with a team loss, but a personal gain for some. The 400 meter relay team set a school record time, and Lisa Tiedtke also had a personal best in the 400 meters.

MIDDLE LEFT: Kerri Joslin long jumps for first place in a dual meet against Milwaukie.

Although the weather was a real challenge for the girls, who had to reschedule many of their matches, the tennis team proved to be a strong one. There were more players, and the returning girls had improved tremendously.

Some of the stronger players were Pam Wood and Debbie Ware. Coach Carol Geldaker was also especially pleased with the freshmen this year, and mentioned that Susmita Chauhan was an "exceptional player."

"Tennis is an individual sport," Coach Geldaker stated.

"The girls realize that what they put into the sport is what they get out of it."

The boys' tennis team ended its second year with an 11-4 win-loss record. They were fourth in the league.

Bryan Locker qualified up to the quarter-finals in singles. In doubles, Mike Delanty and Jeff Carlson just missed making it to the quarter-finals.

Although tennis was supposed to be cut from this year's budget, Coach Andy Espino was glad that it wasn't. He was pleased with the team this season and hoped for the same, or even better, next year.

West Linn's golf team did a fair job with six wins and seven losses. They started the season off with three straight wins. Special recognition should go to Rob Kremer, who was a medalist five times. Some other outstanding players were Dave Holt, a medalist twice, and Curt Olson, also a medalist twice. Rob Kremer had the best average with a 39.7, and Curt Olson followed with a 41. Dave Holt had a 42.2 and Rob Freels, Gordon Rice, and Barry Poyser followed with 43. Because of a budget cut, the team was left out of this year's activities, but because of interest, the team paid for everything itself.

West Linn's winning the state baseball championship and Kim Carroll winning state in the high jump made the spring sports banquet special. Students involved in track, tennis, baseball, and golf were honored for their dedication and participation throughout the season.

Receiving special recognition in boys' track was Dave Clark — most valuable and honorary captain, Steve Bowerman — most improved, and John Teters — most inspirational. For the girls' track team, Lisa Tiedtke was voted most improved, and Kim Carroll received the most outstanding award from her team.

Outstanding baseball players included Bob Bishop and Dave Morris — most valuable, and Bob Bishop and Dan King — most inspirational.

Letters were given to members of the boys' and girls' tennis team as well as the golf team.

Green-eyed Kathy Milliken reacted with
"shock" when her name was announced as Queen of the May Court. She chose being May Day Queen as her most memorable experience.

Kathy's list of favorites include Chinese food, skating, swimming, and singing. She also acted in many of the West Linn play productions, this year as Lady Montague in Romeo and Juliet.

After graduation Kathy plans on working for a year or two and then going to school for training to become a dental assistant.

 ABOVE: Pat Logan announces the events during the May Day performance.

Maid of Honor Donna Sellman compiled an outstanding drama background in high school. After graduation, Donna wants to travel to California and work in summer stock productions.

Donna's favorites are singing, acting, natural surroundings, and her bird "Turkey."

Donna's most memorable high school experience was when a group from the play Molly Brown put soap bubbles in a Portland fountain.

Tap dancing, swimming, playing the piano, and tennis are only some of Princess Beverly Bruechert's hobbies.

Beverly's most memorable high school experience was being chosen Sweetheart

Queen and being named to the May Day Court.

A future filled with traveling is expected by Princess Mary Marcus. Brown-eyed, brown haired Princess Mary was very active in her four years at the high school.

She participated in J.V. and varsity rally, tennis team, track, Thespians, Ski Club, and powder puff football. Barbecued potato chips are the favorite food of the vivacious princess who plans on attending the University of Oregon after graduation.

Tall willowy Princess Kathy Sowersby, with her blonde hair and blue eyes has been very

Involved is the word most used when describing Princess Karen Stuckey. During her four years at West Linn, Karen has been active in Forensics, Thespians, Band, Debutantes, and Student Government. Blue eyed, 5'10" Karen plans to attend the University of Oregon where she will study business management.

Princess Suzanne Minson's activity filled high school years included J.V. Rally, Ski Club, Drama, Debutantes, and acting as Senior Class Secretary. After graduation Suzanne plans to attend Brigham Young University and hopes to someday

merchandiser. For the brown eyed Suzanne, being chosen for May Court was "totally unexpected" and is noted as being her most memorable experience.

Eighteen year old, hazel eyed Princess April Thurber was SO shocked at being chosen for the May Day court that she exclaimed, "let me see the list!"

Princess April was extremely active throughout her four years at West Linn. Among her activities were J.V. and Varsity rally, Ski Club, Honor Society, tennis, track, drama, and powder puff football.

Her future plans include college, travel, and becoming a foreign ambassador.

Princess Leann Woodard lists foreign language and travel as her top interests.

Throughout her four years at West Linn High, she was active in A.F.S., ski team, tennis, volleyball, and was Maid of Honor for 1978 Sweetheart Homecoming.

For her future plans, Princess Leann wants to attend college and study foreign language.

Spring Reflections was the theme for May Day and the Queen's Ball.

The Commons at Marylhurst was decorated for the occasion. Behind the band they used the background built and decorated by the Art students.

In other years the Queen's Ball was held in various locations in Portland. But it was still as much fun and glamorous as the past Queen's Balls.

The couples danced to the sounds of Moon. Then some couples went out for a nice quiet and elegant dinner.

"Gypsy," the spring musical, was called by director John Welty the "most polished production" ever to grace the West Linn stage. The cast contained mostly experienced seniors but also included a cow and several tap-dancing grade school children. The play was quick-footed and fast- paced, with a plot based on the life of a famous stripper, Gypsy Rose Lee. Music was provided by the band, which did an excellent job on such tunes as "Let Me Entertain You," "Funny, Isn't It," "I Had a Dream," and "Everything's Coming Up Roses." The production crews, assisted by the use of a revolving stage, added a sense of professionalism that helped to get the show on its feet and into the hearts of audiences as one of the "best ever."

Commencement, held outside on a warm spring evening, began as the graduating seniors marched in in their traditional green and gold caps and gowns. While everyone was still standing, Student Body President Camille Hamilton led the flag salute, followed by greetings from Mike Delanty, senior class president, and speeches by Scott Sayre and Lori Sheldon, class valedictorians. Next came the presentation of department awards and recognition of various scholarship recipients by Principal Larry Hibbard, then speeches by Saluatorian Greg Emmerich and Valedictorian April Thurber. Finally, after a few greetings from the board of education, each senior's name was called as he walked across the platform to receive his diploma and handshakes. The class president then led them in switching their tassels, signifying their graduation. During the recessional, graduates rejoiced, and green and gold

through the air accompanied by happy shouts and laughter.

Hard work, dedication, and consistent success characterized each of the 1978 honor graduates. To qualify as an honor grad, each student was in the top ten percent of his class, had a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or over, and had earned at least five credits in selected courses such as Advanced Placement English, A.P. United States history, math analysis, physics, calculus, economics, sociology, chemistry, and American political behavior. A total of 26 students graduated with honors.

"The fantastic class of 1978 had a great senior year. During the past four years our class developed a sense of companionship toward one another. We had some outstanding young men and women in various fields: Chris Carroll was named first flute in Oregon's All-State Band, Jim Burkhead was a National Merit finalist, and Karen Seabaugh was in All-State Choir. With the determination and fellowship this year's graduating class showed, great things can be expected from them in the future."

This year's juniors were a very enthusiastic group of people. During the first pep assembly of the year, the juniors won the spirit award. By doing this the junior class was filled with determination and confidence throughout the year. It was an excellent start toward school spirit. They accomplished much as a class, including sponsoring Basketball Homecoming and the Queen's Ball. "The junior class finally realized that they had to do something if they were to get anything done," commented Sandy Dodge, junior class president. By sponsoring several other events the juniors raised well over five-hundred dollars.

The class of 1980 was involved in many activities this year, including sponsoring the football homecoming dance, which they financed by selling yellow mums on game days. In addition, they proved to be a spirited group when they won competition and were named, "Most Spirited Class," during Spirit Week, January 9-13th.

Many Sophomores were busy this year getting their drivers' licenses, attaining jobs, and joining clubs that were open to Sophomores and upperclassmen only, such as Honor Society. It was a great year for the Sophomores.

When the 1977-78 school year began the Lion cubs were shy and confused. But after a few weeks when they opened up their eyes, they were seen every- where. At first class yells were something hard, but after lots of practice at pep assemblies, their roar finally came out. There were approximately 340 freshmen roaming the West Linn High School campus. Freshman Debbie Gabbert said, "We're pretty spirited and getting involved in new activities." The 1977-78 freshmen will make a great pride of Lions in the years to come.

Several new teachers were added to the faculty. They all seemed to have a spe- cial interest in their new jobs at West Linn. Miss Jo Ann Hall, our new French teacher, said, "I really enjoyed my work at West Linn; getting to know all the students was a blast." Greg Mitchel was one of our new P.E. teachers. He also assisted Ernie McKie in coaching boys' basketball. Rocky Sagers won most of his students' confidence. One student quoted, "He's more like a friend than a teacher. He says his opinions openly, and listens to others."

We hope to see everyone next year with the same enthusiasm as we had last year.

Several changes took place at the administrative level, both at the high school and at the district office. Assistant superintendent Wally Falkenstein took over as superintendent; vocational director Rod Juranek assumed the position of assistant superintendent; and Darrell Greenlee became vocational director.

New board members found themselves enmeshed in contract negotiations and teachers were without a contract until December.

Much time and effort was expended in an attempt to pass a school bond to remodel the high school.

Fashions during the '77-78 school year were more than a fad; they were an individual style, based on one's personality.

Footwear was much more noticeable than in the past. Boots could be seen everywhere — under dresses, and gouchos, over pants, etc. . . . Platforms appeared in various shapes and sizes, as well as clogs, esparados, and spike heels.

Taking their cues from past decades, girls could be seen wearing calf-length dresses, pleated plaid skirts, and cowl neck sweaters. The peasant look was especially popular — dresses, skirts, and tops.

Girls also wore cashmere sweaters, granny dresses, quiana outfits, "sparkle shirts," gauze shirts, metallic jacket, Pulse jeans, and sweater coats.

Gold jewelry replaced silver and turquoise. Snake belts, stick pins, double earrings and hair bands and combs topped off the typical outfit in '77-78.

Work Experience, a program which enables students to work while receiving school credit, involved over 150 students and at least 140 businesses. Students received one credit for each class they were out of, with a maximum of two credits per semester.

Students' work hours varied from 12-40 hours per week. They worked mornings, afternoons, or nights, and almost all students worked on weekends.

Work Experience, "prepares young people for their career objective and teaches the dignity of work," according to Ray Swanstrom, Work Experience coordinator.

West Linn's Work Experience program has been in operation for seven years. The requirements to work during school on the Work Experience program include passing grades, good attendance, and good behavior on and off the job.

Responsibilities of the Leadership class included organizing committees, planning assemblies, running Student Council meetings, setting up homecoming activities, handling elections, and coordinating May Day.

Members of the class were elected Student Body Officers and Class Presidents and Eric Jones, Amplifier co-editor.

This year was different for student leaders because their advisor was Mr. Mike Glenn rather than the principal, as in other years.

Effective leadership was attained through these students working together.

Although a project to publish a student directory early in the year failed, Student Council supported and completed many other undertakings. One of these projects was the canned food drive before the holidays in which the student body donated over 1,400 cans to needy people of this area. Another activity Student Council sponsored was the mid-year exchange assembly with Milwaukie to promote sportsmanship. Other issues brought before the council this year included allocation of student body funds, formulation of an exchange student policy, topics presented by Mr. Hibbard, and homecoming activities.

TOP: Lori Sheldon presents the monthly treasurer's report as Camille Hamilton reads along. ABOVE: Interested Student Council reps discuss possibilities for placement of the Joe Schutz memorial. LEFT: Student Body Secretary Karen Stuckey reads the minutes of the last meeting as Mike Delanty and Lori Sheldon listen closely.

The Spanish Club, proved to be a very energetic group. Paper Collections, Spanish cooking, as well as caroling were just some of the club's many activities.

Meetings centered around the club's purpose "to further the knowledge of Hispanic culture through related activities and youth exchange."

Making West Linn's

stay as enjoyable as possible is only one of the purposes of the A.F.S. Club.

By attending seminars, having short term exchange, and presenting assemblies and dances the A.F.S. Club hopes to "promote understanding, knowledge, and friendship between foreign countries and within the United States."

Short term students from the Rotary International Exchange Program were Luz Neira from Bogotá, Columbia, who stayed with Laure Doty for three months; Claudia García, also from Bogotá, Columbia, who stayed with Lori and Wendy Sheldon for five months; Silva Baptista from Sao Paulo, Brazil. She stayed with Rotary chairman Perry Reel for three months. Marta Arévalo from Bogota, Colombia stayed with Kelly and Kari Thompson for four months.

Long term exchange students were Ubirajara

(Bira) Moribe from Maringá, Brazil, who stayed with Mike Calhoon for a year, and Nora Suarez, from Buenos Aires, Argentina who also stayed for a year with Debbie and Delores Ware.

Teté and Dulce Renolvaes, sisters from Tapachula, Mexico, came as personal exchange students. Tete stayed with Crystal Wheaton and Dulce stayed at Elaine Thompson's.

Lukas Laux, an A.F.S. — American Field Service exchange student from Germany, lived with Kris Geldaker for one year.

TOP LEFT: Lukas Laux makes a quick call between classes. TOP RIGHT: Marta Arevalo thinks of going home. CENTER: Sylvia Baptista reflects her enthusiasm of being at West Linn. Sparkle and style, glitter and grace, as well as crisp, sharp performances were what the 1978 Debutantes sought to achieve. While maintaining a rigorous schedule of practices and performances the team was beset by such problems as lack of enthusiasm, injuries and personal conflicts. After placing fourth in a fall district competition, the Debs held mid-year tryouts due to a high drop out rate. Freshmen, for the first time, were accepted for the team.

Under the direction of Becky Collier and team captain Karen Stuckey, the 23 girls improved throughout the year, and concluded with their May Day performance.

The Concert Band, consisting of 55 members, entertained many people. For most of the year, they presented half-time shows at the football and basketball games. Later, the band performed very well in the Winter Concert.

With 16 people making up the Stage Band, they performed throughout the year. At the WILCO Stage Band Festival, held in November, they showed off by having the Out-standing Musician Award given to Bob Smethers for his tenor sax solo.

On February 16, Don Nelson and the bands performed in the auditorium. The Stage Band performed six selections including solos by Kevin Holland and Bob Smethers.

The Concert Choir had only 30 members first semester and all were girls. Second semester 10 guys were added and gave the choir a bigger and better sound. "The choir is the largest choir West Linn has had for many years," said Gene Hardin.

The Swing choir sang for numerous community functions throughout the school year. They traveled to jazz contests in Pleasant Hill, Oregon, and Pasco, Washington. The Swing Choir got an excellent rating at the District III Solo and Ensemble contest on March 4. Choir Director Gene Hardin said, "Our choir consists mostly of freshmen and juniors. Even with so young a group we have some outstanding musicians."

Mixed Choir was a large class consisting mostly of freshmen.

The choir performed in the Christmas Concert, Choral Concert, and an Orchestra and Choral Concert performance. Outside activities included a Junior Division Contest held in April.

The Recorder Consort was a small group consisting of ten students. Different types of recorders were played, ranging in size and shape. They performed in the Christmas Concert in December, the Choral Concert in March, and the Baroque Concert in May. "This new group did an outstanding job," stated director Gene Hardin.

Orchestra Director Tony Hess stated "The orchestra improved steadily all year." Combined with the concert band, these musicians formed a full symphonic orchestra. With the help of talented celloist Carl Jurison and Dave Morris, the group performed often. In addition to playing for concerts and graduation, they performed for many orchestra festivals and grade schools.

Collegium Musicum was a music honors and service club for our school. Each month the club meetings were held in members' homes, and frequently the group attended concerts and discussed them during the meetings.

Organized in 1968, the purpose of the Hi-Q Club is to "advance the cause of trivia and to practice matching wits in quick recall." At least some of the students take an interest in the club each year. The Hi-Q Club has no entrance requirements. "Just walk in and take a seat," stated advisor Phyllis Swank. "The members were enthusiastic and the atmosphere was friendly."

The Ecology Club contributed their services to the improvement of our environment. To be an active member one must attend two-thirds of the meetings and be involved in at least one of the club activities.

Cindy Mead was an excellent organizer for the recycling program that was conducted at the high school for office paper. "The members of the Ecology Club were cooperative and helpful in getting the job done for the Department of Environmental Quality.

They knew how to work together which created a nice atmosphere for all who were involved," stated Didra Carter, president of the club.

The Scuba Club provided leadership and support for people wanting to dive. To join the Scuba Club one must be certified to scuba dive.

This year's Scuba Club went on dives at the Clackamas River, Tillamook Bay, Hood Canal, and Puget Sound whenever a member wanted to promote a dive. Advisor Don Smith commented that the Scuba Club is "fun, interesting, and educational."

The Honor Society gives recognition to students outstanding in scholarship primarily, but who also participate in school activities and practice good citizenship.

Outstanding members included Jon Farley, Camille Hamilton, Jim Burkhead, Scott Sayre, Georgette Kolarik, and Kathy Cleland.

TOP: SCUBA CLUB: Lee Laxson, Mark Cantrell, Dean Shiley, Advisor Don Smith, and Sam Hansen. The Newcomers' Club, helps new students adjust to a new school and surroundings. Advisor Ray Swanstrom stated, "The guides really care about the new students and they don't want anyone to be strangers." The guide takes the student around to show them the smoking lounge, cafeteria, learning center, library, courtyard, gyms, shops, and the lower and upper offices.

Future Farmers of America is an organization made up of students interested in any phase of agriculture, such as public speaking and dairy judging.

The West Linn Chapter won the "Grand sweepstakes" in the P.I. dairy judging contest, and represented the Oregon Association in Kansas City at the National Horticulture contest.

A newly organization group, the Chess Club met informally to play chess. With as many as 20 active members, the club sponsored an annual open tournament, and later a freshman playoff.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America had a branch in West Linn. Vocational students, headed by Jim Simpson and advised by Andy Espino and Jerry Quinn, had opportunity to do service for the school. The V.I.C.A. Club made new benches for the front of the school, a project Jeff Hunt directed. Hunt also won a gold medal in the Oregon V.I.C.A. Skills Olympics. He went on to represent Oregon in Birmingham for national competition in his field.

The D.E.C.A. Club is a small club with an important purpose. D.E.C.A. stands for Distributive Educational Clubs of America. This club is an educational program which offers instructions in marketing, merchandizing, and management. Some of the club's many activities included representing our school in the Oregon Career Development Conference in Eugene, presenting our students with "Brown Bag Theatre," and selling food at the Munchie Stand during break and lunch.

For the past two years, there had been no Business Club. This year the club was a big success. There were approximately 40 students. Mrs. Lawrence, the advisor, held meetings about twice a month. During the meetings, they plan fund-raising projects, such as potlucks, contests, sales, and other activities. The funds went toward a trip to Seattle. "Everyone in the club is willing to participate in the club activities to achieve our goal," says Debbie Marti, president.

The Forensics Club is designed for students interested in speaking in com- petition. Some of the many different events were poetry interpretation, radio commentary, and talent shows. The club met before each tournament. They discussed plans for potlucks, luncheons, parties, and speaking events. Their goals were to be able to work together as a team, to represent West Linn High, to create different speaking opportunities, and to attend speech tournaments.

The Thespian Club is the basis for all drama produc- tions at West Linn High School. The main events were the initiations, the Awards Banquet at the end of the year, and the annual State Thespians Conference in which West Linn was honored to perform Romeo and Juliet this year.

The Inter-Club Council, which is referred to as I.C.C., was composed of all organization presidents with the exception of the student body and class presidents. Their duties were to regulate, coordinate and schedule club activities.

The chairman was Diane Carlile and the secretary was Lori Sheldon.

Most people do not actually know what our T.A. Reps do. The T.A. Reps attended all of the student body council meetings and reported back to the T.A. class they represented. Members took part in discussions after obtaining information from their teacher adviser groups. They then presented the ideas to the council and later brought the results back to the individual T.A. groups.

In addition to completing individual projects and taking photographs for local newspapers, the Photo II class worked with the yearbook department shooting and printing pictures for the yearbook. Their teacher, Mr. Charles Taylor, stated, "I would like to see some changes in the way things are run." He suggested arranging the yearbook room next to the photo lab in the school building. This would help with communication problems and save time. A separate photo staff for yearbook was another idea.

The Amplifier increased from six to eight pages. Under the leadership of Camille Hamilton and Eric Jones, the staff put the Amplifier out every second week.

The Journalism staff also increased to 31 students expressing their own and student opinions. "The size of the staff reflects the fact that being part of the Amplifier is exciting, fun, and rewarding," commented adviser Carol Benson.

Camille Hamilton expressed her views in a new column called Cunning Stunts. But Jeff Michael's Wheel Whirl remained the most popular column. Dave Emfinger was the cartoonist and Jim Burkhead was the Sports editor. "The Amplifier encountered some problems this year, but for the most part we overcame them to produce a quality newspaper. A lot of the staff members put out a terrific effort and contributed a lot to the paper," stated Eric Jones, co-editor of the Amplifier.

The staff had many challenges in producing the "78 Green and Gold." In addition to working with a new publishing company, a different professional photographer, a new Photo II advisor, and attempting to produce an award winning book, most of the staff were "rookies," having never worked on a yearbook before.

The yearbook has many new features such as a full color introduction, tool lines on every page, gray copy blocks, and an eight page color closing.

Some of the leaders in the class were Melonie Simnitt, editor, who oversaw successful production of the book; Kim Riley, who organized fund raising projects such as a dance in December; and Janet Fowler who took charge of the index.

Some of the duties of each staff member included attending a workshop in September, selling advertising, completing all assigned pages and interviewing, writing, and finding pictures for those pages, and cooperating in planning with the editor and advisor.

Mrs. Carol Benson, advisor, commented, "It seems there are always motivation problems at some point of the year. The staff comes in excited and with the idea that being on the yearbook staff is all fun. Then reality sets in, and only those who are truly dedicated can get their act together and work toward the long range goal of producing a good yearbook."

Melonie added, "We've given it our best!"

High upon a hill so noble challenging the eye,
Stands a school above all others,
Stands our West Linn High

West Linn High to thee we shall be ever loyal and bold.
Striving ever to do service for the Green and Gold.

When our high school days are over and we're scattered wide, We'll revere the name of West Linn think of her with pride.

leads during a basketball time-out. RIGHT:
Steve Sayre pushes on the last lap. THIS PAGE:

Spirit Plaque, their third consecutive year to capture the award. LEFT: Knol Simnitt explays his creativity during spare time in yearbook class.
TOP LEFT: Scott Sayre and Diane Taylor perform in Romeo and Juliet.

SEPT. 6, '78
Doug - it's difficult for me to tell you how I feel about you cause I want you to really understand. I've always been close to you & we've always gotten along well. Your triumphs, joys, heartaches, sadnesses, all that happens to you, is important to me. You are important to me. I love you with a love that is eternal, a love that will never end. We are truly brother & sister for an eternity & beyond. I wish all the happiness that it is possible to have,

 for you. May you stay close, close as possible, to the true Church & its principles. May you always have God's love and guiding spirit to be with you.
 Never forget your family, especially not this sister,
 who loves so much.
 Keep growing up, Doug, you've come such a long way already, yet for each of Stretches beyond us an eternity to live, and you will <sup>be</sup> according to how you lived here. So grow, be strong, and
 remember me - ok?
 with all my heart &
 affection! SIS - Mike

Dear Pug ~

I have to admit I was a bit surprised when you asked me to write in your annual, but thanks! There's a lot I wanna say, but no words if you know what I mean. You're a real special guy Pug and you mean a lot to me. I look up to you in a lot of ways (and not cuz you're taller!) You seem to always have a smile on your face & your talent to make others smile is a special gift. Father in Heaven must have loved you very much, Pug to give you so many talents, a loving family, and a strong testimony.

May you always keep the Lord on your side Pug. The way it looks right now, I'm gonna know the greatest missionary ever! Thanks for everything Pug ~ the smiles, the thoughts, the strength.

And most of all (even if you do get crude once in a while) thanks for the jokes that keep me and everyone else laughing!

Keep on smilin' gorgeous!

Lots of love,

Sparky

P.S. Don't burn too many people, let 'em get you once & a while! Even though you do hate to lose!
